

2006 CANDIDATE QUESTIONNAIRE

Provide brief clarification if necessary. Please fax your completed Questionnaire to 617-928-1515. Email version will be sent, on request to evelyn@mfamily.org

1. Should legislators vote to allow Massachusetts citizens to vote on the Constitutional Amendment that would define future marriages as between one man and one woman?

YES NO UNDECIDED NO RESPONSE

2. Should hypodermic needles be sold at drugstores without a prescription?

YES NO UNDECIDED NO RESPONSE

3. Should the state support research that destroys human embryos and permits cloning?

YES NO UNDECIDED NO RESPONSE

The phrasing of this question prohibits my reply.

4. Should legalized gambling be expanded?

YES NO UNDECIDED NO RESPONSE

5. Should sex education be optional so that parents can decide when and how their own children should be taught about sex?

YES NO UNDECIDED NO RESPONSE

Opt-out only, not opt-in

Candidate Name: Owen Broadhurst

6. Should minors be taught abstinence in public schools, that is, how to set limits and maintain affectionate relationships without sexual involvement?

YES NO UNDECIDED NO RESPONSE

I do not, however, support "abstinence only" health or sex education curricula.

7. Should school options be expanded by any of the following means: vouchers, education tax credits or deductions for parents with children in private schools, or by expanding the number of charter schools?

YES NO UNDECIDED NO RESPONSE

8. Should the Massachusetts income tax rate be reduced to 5%, as was passed by the voters in 2000?

YES NO UNDECIDED NO RESPONSE

9. Should children of illegal aliens be given the same lower tuition rate for state colleges as legal Massachusetts residents?

YES NO UNDECIDED NO RESPONSE

Candidate Name(printed): OWEN Broadhurst Candidate Signature:  Date: 10/10/06
Candidate Campaign Address: 96 Elbert Rd. Agawam Phone: 413 7861508
Office sought: STATE REPRESENTATIVE Party: G Email address: owen.broadhurst@gmail.com
District: Third Hampden District
Campaign Manager: JAMES Broadhurst Phone: 413.786.1508 Fax: 425.988.8734